I THOUGHT, THIS IS AMAZING

We'll never find anything like this again

When Emma and Matthew moved to Norfolk, they rented a house to see if they could make their new life there. Two years later they're still there and want to stay for good. What keeps them in Norfolk? It's their house, Holly Grove, which they finally decided to buy, renovate and decorate using their own skills and imagination.

Holly Grove was previously a farmhouse. Like many houses in East Anglia, it is a combination of different architectural styles. One side comes from the time of King George V, Queen Victoria's grandson, the middle part is Victorian, and the other side is just a series of unattractive rooms from the 1950s.

Emma and Matthew were looking for a quick way of improving on this strange mixture of styles. They decided on colour. For example, the dining room in the Georgian part of the house had great French windows at either end, which made it very cold. Now it is much more optimistic and warm because it was painted yellow. Emma believes that yellow is always good - the brighter and deeper, the better!

Another big colour idea was the redecoration of the drawing room. There was ugly wallpaper on its walls. One day Emma and Matthew decided that they had had enough, and covered all the walls with cheap red material. For nearly no money and in almost no time, they created a wonderful effect. The room changed into a great place to display their old furniture and paintings.

As well as colour, Emma and Matthew also use a lot of unusual things and pictures to put on the walls of their house. In the bathroom there are large charts showing different kinds of birds and flowers. The kitchen is decorated with toys and the children's paintings. In the bedroom Emma used a lot of printed material and paper. For example, the little toilet is covered in wrapping paper which makes it look like a bright little gift box.

Emma and Matthew's decorating ideas also helped to improve their daughters' room. The walls are covered with old pictures Emma had when she was a child. A family friend painted the ceiling full of poppies, anemones and roses - and now Elizabeth and Kitty wake up to a sea of flowers!

To use or not to use the Internet?

Write an essay.Describe advantages and disadvantages of using the Internet.*Write 110-120 words

1. Write an introduction
2. Give 3 arguments "for"
3. Give 3 arguments "against"
4. Draw a conclusion

The Internet

The internet is very important for modern society. Many people have different views about it. I'm going to give some arguments "for" and some arguments "against".

Let's start with advantages. Firstly, you can find every information in the internet. Also you can ~~watch~~ watch a lot of exciting films. Using the internet you can contact with your relatives or friends.

However, it has some disadvantages. For example, teenagers often forget about face to face communication because they talk with their friends only in the internet. Also people can become very stupid if they spend a lot of time in the internet. Sometimes it has harmful effect on people's health.

Nevertheless I consider that the internet has more advantages than disadvantages.

First Fast Food

John Montagu was the 4th Earl (граф) of Sandwich. He lived in England in the 17th century. He loved to sit at the table and play cards with his friends. John didn't like to stop for a meal. That is why he often asked to bring him meat between two pieces of bread.

Now people don't remember that story but still call this fast food a Sandwich. Today we usually put some butter on the bread. Some of us like to use different fillings such as ham, cheese or eggs.

II. READING (7 баллов)

Чтение

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами А – G и их заголовками 1 – 8. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

- 1. Good for everyone
- 2. Easy to care for
- 3. Part of culture
- 4. Screen fashion
- 5. An innovative idea
- 6. Working clothes
- 7. Jeans' labels
- 8. Clothes to protest

A. Jeans are one of the fashion's most long enduring trends. Cowboys wear them but so do supermodels, farmers, presidents and housewives. Ask any group of people why they wear jeans and you will get a range of answers. For some they're comfortable and easy – for others they're trendy and cool. Jeans mean different things to different people, but they are popular everywhere.

- B. Americans do not have a national folk dress with a long tradition. Blue jeans are probably the most recognizable article of American clothing. They have been part of American life for over 125 years. Blue denim jeans became not only an expression of American identity known around the world.
- C. Jeans were first designed as trousers for farmers and miners in the states of the American West. They quickly grew popular with common people, including cowboys, factory employees and railroad builders. The new trousers were made from a very strong material which did not wear out easily. However, at the same time jeans were very practical and comfortable to wear.
- D. Pockets were the weak point of the miners' clothes – they easily tore away from the jeans. A man called Jacob Davis had the idea of using metal rivets (fasteners) to hold the pockets and the jeans together so that they wouldn't tear. Davis wanted to patent his idea, but he didn't have enough money, so he offered Levi Strauss a deal if Strauss paid for the patent. Strauss accepted and started making jeans.
- E. By the middle of the twentieth century, these heavy cotton trousers had become a symbol of opposition for young artists and writers. College students started to wear them to show they were against the Vietnam War. The new trousers were banned in American schools from coast to coast and sometimes in theatres and cinemas.
- F. Jeans are good because they don't show the dirt. You can easily go a month without washing them and they don't look shocking. They don't need to be washed as often as other trousers and you don't need to iron them. What's more, because of the strong material you can wear your favorite jeans for years. Even the occasional hole or spot doesn't spoil them at all.
- G. In the 30s and 40s many people began to spend their spare time watching movies where adventurous cowboys rode horses, fought bad guys and wore blue jeans. The actors made jeans popular in movies and everyone wanted to wear them. Young people wished to imitate the casual "cowboyish" look they saw in films, and they began to wear jeans as casual wear.

Dear Bob,

~~I'm glad to get your email~~ Thank you for your email. I'm was glad to get it.

Now I will ask for your questions. You asked me about spending my summer holidays. So I usually spend my summer holidays in my countryhouse playing activity games and swimming in a pool. Asking your question about interesting places. I was in Saint-Petersburg and I saw a lot of interesting sights! About the list of Literature... so I read only four books.

Sorry, but I have to finish my email, because I need to do my homework.

Write me ^{back} as soon as possible.

Best wishes,

Daniel

II. READING (7 баллов)

Чтение

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A – G и их заголовками 1 – 8. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

- 1. Good for everyone
- 2. Easy to care for
- 3. Part of culture
- 4. Screen fashion
- 5. An innovative idea
- 6. Working clothes
- 7. Jeans' labels
- 8. Clothes to protest

A. Jeans are one of the fashion's most long enduring trends. Cowboys wear them but so do supermodels, farmers, presidents and housewives. Ask any group of people why they wear jeans and you will get a range of answers. For some they're comfortable and easy – for others they're trendy and cool. Jeans mean different things to different people, but they are popular everywhere.

A-8-5

- B. Americans do not have a national folk dress with a long tradition. Blue jeans are probably the most recognizable article of American clothing. They have been part of American life for over 125 years. Blue denim jeans became not only an expression of American identity known around the world.
- C. Jeans were first designed as trousers for farmers and miners in the states of the American West. They quickly grew popular with common people, including cowboys, factory employees and railroad builders. The new trousers were made from a very strong material which did not wear out easily. However, at the same time jeans were very practical and comfortable to wear.
- D. Pockets were the weak point of the miners' clothes – they easily tore away from the jeans. A man called Jacob Davis had the idea of using metal rivets (fasteners) to hold the pockets and the jeans together so that they wouldn't tear. Davis wanted to patent his idea, but he didn't have enough money, so he offered Levi Strauss a deal if Strauss paid for the patent. Strauss accepted and started making jeans.
- E. By the middle of the twentieth century, these heavy cotton trousers had become a symbol of opposition for young artists and writers. College students started to wear them to show they were against the Vietnam War. The new trousers were banned in American schools from coast to coast and sometimes in theatres and cinemas.
- F. Jeans are good because they don't show the dirt. You can easily go a month without washing them and they don't look shocking. They don't need to be washed as often as other trousers and you don't need to iron them. What's more, because of the strong material you can wear your favorite jeans for years. Even the occasional hole or spot doesn't spoil them at all.
- G. In the 30s and 40s many people began to spend their spare time watching movies where adventurous cowboys rode horses, fought bad guys and wore blue jeans. The actors made jeans popular in movies and everyone wanted to wear them. Young people wished to imitate the casual "cowboyish" look they saw in films, and they began to wear jeans as casual wear.

Dear Bob,

Thank you for your e-mail. I was happy to get it from you.

You asked me about my summer holidays. It was amazing!

I was travelling in our region and I have visited a lot of interesting cities. But usually I go to Moscow or Saint-Petersburg on my summer holidays. This summer I was in Zelenogradsk, Svetlogorsk, Yantarnyi.

I also walked on Curonian Spit. Also in summer I ~~found~~ read a lot of books. I have read all list of my summer literature, it was really interesting and gripping.

Sorry, now I have to go.

Keep in touch.

Best wishes,

Sofia
